"Times, of Course"

That's what all the newsboys say when asked which Barre paper sells the best. There is no doubt about it.

Now that the Dowieites have reached New York city we shall expect to see the "devil" scampering out. At least that is what this peculiar band has promised.

This echo of the last gubernatorial campaign which is now being held from Rutland is a gentle reminder of the ruffled state of Vermont's political waters not so long ago.

It may or it may not be W. P. Stafford whom the president has in mind for an appointment to a District of Columbia judgeship, but the signs point somewhat in that direction. Still there may be another guess.

The city of Chicago is to spend one million dollars in improving her park system, a move for the well-being of those thousands of people who cannot afford to spend their money in a vacation. That's the class which is really benefited by a park system, and money judiciously expended in that way is money well spent.

The Barre license commissioners have decided that beer cannot be allowed at dances held within the city limits. What will the poor creatures do for a thirst quencher?—Bellows Falls Times.

The recent drought and the license law have not made pure water an entirely unknown quantity in Barre, and we hope not in Bellows Falls.

Owing to continued ill health Editor C. C. Lord of the Groton Times has been compelled to give up the publishing of his excellent newspaper. The St. Johnsbury Republican buys the subscription and good will of the paper. The newspaper fraternity of the state will regret that Mr. Lord is forced to do this, and all will wish him a speedy restoration to health.

Rev. D. J. O'Sullivan of St. Albans, applies the lash severely in commenting on the revolting condition of affairs, recently revealed. He said, "So long as we make light of immorality in adults, so long as we let professed and convicted criminals go free, and allow them to ply their traffic unmolested, so long as the life of the respectable libertine is condoned, just so long the 'Blockers' can say to us, 'Physician, heal thyself.'"

Interesting news is this that we hear from Lexington, South Carolina, that when James H. Tillman was declared not guilty of murder some one presented him his two old pistols. Tillman did not accept. But what an irony! Tillman had no need of the instruments. He had done his work, had been arrested on the charge of murder, had been tried and then acquitted. What need had he of the two pistols? The kind friend who offered them to him perpetrated a solemn joke when he did it.

The Lyndonville Journal has this to say, in the course of an article on clean athletics. "In the case of Goddard Seminary we can see no ground for severe criticism as no specific agreement has been made between the schools of the state that teachers shall not play on teams, and other schools have been doing it right along without protest. However, in the interest of fair sport, we would suggest that an agreement be made by the leading schools of the state to discontinue the playing of teachers on football teams altogether."

Notice.—We will have our fall opening Thursday, Oct. 22, but will do business just the same until then at our store in Carrier's building. Veale & Knight.

Orders taken for suits and coats at Homer Flitt's store on Monday afternoon and evening and Tuesday forenoon, October 19th and 20th.

We have such faith in California coffee that we want all lovers of a good one to call and get a few samples to try. Lily A. Averill.

More of the lake apples at $1.40 will arrive Monday or Tuesday. H. L. Averill & Co.

Rain Coats, good assortment in prices and colors, at McWhorter's.

Old gold and silver wanted at refiners' prices in exchange for goods at F. E. Burr's.

The October crop is here. It's "rich and fruity." If you intend to wear it long, buy the shorter, as it will remain in style longer; but the long and short of it is, both styles are a necessity to most men.

ABOUT THE STATE.

Items of Interest Gleaned From Our Exchanges.

Senator Redfield Proctor has gone to Washington and will not probably return for some time, as the extra session of Congress is to begin early next month.

While out hunting in Readsboro Wednesday afternoon the gun of Amerigo Agostini was "accidentally" discharged and one hand badly torn by the "discharge" of the shot that went through it. He was attended to and the physicians hope to save the hand.

The work of canning at the Palmer & Demeritt factory in Waterbury is finished and work has been resumed in manufacturing clothespins. Not as much corn has been received this year as last but the quality is first class. In all 100,000 cans of corn and 75,000 cans of beans have been put up.

A party of nine hunters from Brooklyn, N. Y., arrived at Readsboro Wednesday morning intending to remain in that section until the close of the deer hunting season which lasts through the last ten days of the month. In the afternoon two of them went out prospecting and came across a black bear, not but a short distance from the village. They killed the animal which weighed about 200 pounds and took it back to the village with them. The same afternoon Sanford Plumb, of Pownal, killed one that weighed 100 pounds.
